

28
STAT

SECTION VI
THE INTELLIGENCE STRUCTURE OF THE GOVERNMENT

Outline of Course

1. ORGANIZATION

- a. Purpose: To acquaint the student with the government's intelligence structure through examination of the organizations, missions, and relationships of its intelligence departments, with detailed discussion of the Central Intelligence Agency.
- b. Scope: This course covers five major areas:
- (1) Lines of command, liaison and working level contact among the intelligence agencies.
  - (2) Intelligence Advisory Committee
  - (3) Central Intelligence Agency
  - (4) Intelligence Organizations and Missions of State, Joint Chiefs of Staff, and the three Services.
  - (5) Intelligence activities of other Government Departments and Agencies.
- c. Lectures: Seven lectures will be delivered during this course. Each will be followed by a discussion period. This course will also include four field trips.

2. PROGRAM

- a. Lecture No. 2, 1400 - 1450, _____ 1951, "Basic Governmental Intelligence Structure - Part I" by Director of CIA Intelligence School.

COPY

COPY

COPY

Precis: The role of the DCI as coordinator of the intelligence activities of the Government: the formal organization for this purpose as represented by the IAC; a brief identification and description of agencies which make up the IAC, the lines of command, liaison, and working level contact among them, a brief description and identification of the agencies which make up the IAC and how that function on both coordination and production problems; a general identification of non-IAC governmental agencies which support the intelligence mission of the Government.

- b. Lecture No. 81, 1530 - 1620, _____ 1951, "Governmental Intelligence Structure - Part II" by Director of CIA Intelligence School. Precis: (Same as above)

- c. Lecture No. 82, 1400 - 1450, _____ 1951, "Intelligence in the Department of State" by Park Armstrong or Fisher Howe.

Precis: A discussion of the mission, organization and functions, and objectives of the intelligence organization of the Department of State and its relationships to CIA.

- d. Lecture No. 83, 1530 - 1620, _____ 1951, "Intelligence in the Department of Army"

Precis: A discussion of the mission, organization, functions, and objectives of the intelligence organization of the Department of Army and its relationships to CIA.

- e. Lecture No. 24, 1400 - 1450, _____ 1951, "Intelligence in the Department of Navy", Felix Johnson.

Precis: A discussion of the mission, organization, functions and objectives of the intelligence organization of the Department of the Navy and its relationships to CIA.

- f. Lecture No. 25, 1530 - 1620, _____ 1951, "Intelligence in the Department of the Air Force", Mickey Moore.

Precis: A discussion of the mission, organization, functions and objectives of the intelligence organization of the Department of the Air Force and its relationships to CIA.

- g. Lecture No. 26, 1400 - 1450, _____ 1951, "Intelligence in the Joint Staff", General Megee.

Precis: A discussion of the mission, organization, functions and objectives of the intelligence organization of the Joint Staff.

- h. Lecture No. 27, 1530 - 1620, _____ 1951, "Intelligence in the Atomic Energy Commission", Henderson.

Precis: A discussion of the mission, organization, functions, and objectives of the intelligence organization of the Atomic Energy Commission and its relationships to CIA.

- i. Lecture No. 28, 1400 - 1450, _____ 1951, "Intelligence in other governmental organizations".

Precis: A brief summary of intelligence activities in non-IAC governmental agencies such as Treasury, Commerce and Interior, etc. Justice (FBI).

COPY

COPY

COPY

which support directly or indirectly the formal intelligence structure of the government.

25X1

